

ALGO 2010 Participant Information

Venue and Arrival

ALGO 2010 is held in the Hilton Hotel in Liverpool City Centre, see the map on the reverse.

Trains from Manchester Airport take you to Liverpool Lime Street Station. Note that return train tickets tend to be much cheaper than two single tickets. Walking from Lime Street Station to the Hilton takes about 15 minutes. You can also consider taking a black cab taxi.

Alternatively, you can book in advance a taxi service from Manchester Airport, through Executive Travel at +44(0)1514952552 or Delta Taxi at +44(0)1519227373. This will cost you about £40-45. Using any taxi service at the airport is likely to be more expensive.

From Liverpool Airport, we recommend taking Airport Bus 500 to the city centre. Other bus lines taking you to the centre include 80A and 86A. Black cab taxi trip costs about £15-20.
